Special Activities

A few of our special summer activities call for a small number of selected items. We'll send a letter before the summer with the details — no need to pack for them yet.

What Stays at Home

- Phones and any device with a screen, internet or Wi-Fi capability (even if disabled)
- Valuable jewelry or personal items
- Clothing requiring special washing
- Open-toe shoes; shoes with heels or wedges
- Folding chairs, inflatable furniture
- Area rugs, bedside mats, "egg crate" mattress pads
- Chests of drawers, under-bed storage bins
- Curling irons, straighteners
- Anything that would upset a camper or parent if it doesn't make it home ☹

If It's Coming, LABEL It!

No item is fully protected against being misplaced. Please label everything clearly with your camper's name (last name + first initial if possible). We'll share labeling options before summer, but a permanent marker works well.

2027 Packing Pointers

We make a few adjustments each year. Even if you've sent a child to camp before, please review.

- New for 2027
- Two plain white 100% cotton T-shirts — one for Tie-Dye, one for the SCOPE Color Run/Fun Activity.
 - 4–5 sets of pajamas (up from 2).
 - Special-activity items are no longer on the list — a letter before the summer will cover the few you'll need.

1 The CLC uniform

Every camper needs 4 CLC uniform tops: 1–2 White and 1–2 Hunter Green T-shirts, plus 1 Reversible Mesh Pinnie (it works for both colors and is used for many activities, so it's very important). Also required: 1 CLC Sweatshirt and 1 pair each of White and Hunter Green shorts (plain or CLC logo). Order from Everything Camper by April 1.

2 White tees must be cotton

Tie-dye won't hold on sport/performance fabric, so please send two plain white 100% cotton T-shirts with no logo.

3 End-of-bed shoe organizer

Required for every camper, with Velcro straps so it attaches to the bed.

4 A bag for trips — and shipping ahead

Every camper needs a medium sport duffel or backpack (drawstring is fine) for trips; some also like a very light day bag for a change of clothes and water bottle. Bags must be shipped to camp in advance — see your forms, Chestnut Essentials and the Handbook. Search online for “soft trunk” or “cargo bag” examples.

5 Sleeping bag

Required for every camper. We can't promise how often it will be used, but each camper should have one.

6 Sheets: twin (or cot)

Our beds are cot-sized; twin or cot sheets both work. Full size or larger will be too big.

7 Three water bottles

Campers use bottle-filling stations all over camp, and we wash bottles about weekly in the dining hall. Please send durable, dishwasher-safe bottles, clearly and permanently labeled.

8 Crocs are recommended

Great for walking to and from activities, including the waterfront — but not for sports or active events. We usually hand out special Jibbitz!

9 Hiking & rain footwear

Traditional hiking boots are optional — sturdy, rainproof trail runners or similar work too, as long as they aren't the everyday sneakers used for sports. Rain boots or waterproof shoes are required: heavy rain leaves the grounds very wet. Depending on your choice, one pair may cover both.

Bathing Suits

Chestnut Lake allows two-piece suits (like tankinis and bikinis) with this understanding: we pride ourselves on being a low-key, down-to-earth and wholesome community.

Please send swimwear that is comfortable for your child, supports a positive body image, and works for active programs in the lake and pool. Swimwear should not be sexually suggestive or immodest; please avoid string bikinis and other styles our leaders might consider inappropriate. If a camper needs to change suits, we'll ask discreetly.

Questions? Contact Ann.

Screens & Music Devices

Chestnut Lake is screen-free: no phones, gaming devices, video players, cameras or anything with internet access. The items on “What Stays at Home” reflect our idea of one standard for everyone — thank you for helping us keep it.

Music at rest hour and bedtime is welcome: campers may bring a music player with no Wi-Fi, wireless or video capability, such as the Mighty. Other (often less expensive) devices may be acceptable, but please be sure they have no screen and cannot connect to the internet. Chestnut Lake isn't responsible for lost or damaged devices.

And finally...

We have a NO PACKAGE policy — please send enough supplies to last the full session. And one last time: please LABEL everything coming to camp.
